

Parity of Esteem in Pre-Registration Nursing Education: a Working Symposium

Wednesday 14 April 2021, 09:30-16:30

Time	Session	Speaker(s)
09:30	Room opens
10:00	Welcome to University of Roehampton	Paul Newcombe Director of Nurse Education University of Roehampton
10:10	What is parity of esteem?	Simon Arday Senior Lecturer in Parity of Esteem, University of Roehampton
10:15	A brief history of parity of esteem	Tim Coupland Clinical Rep for Parity of Esteem, Royal College of Nursing
10:45-10:55 – Coffee/comfort/screen break
11:00	Future nurse now? Developing a professional identity responsive to mind and body (followed by small group inquiry and plenary reflections)	Gavin Shields Associate Director of Nursing – Mental Health King's College Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
12:00-12:50 - Lunch
13:00	Recognising the person at the centre of parity (followed by small group inquiry and plenary reflections)	Dave Chawner Author, comedian and mental health campaigner
14:00-14:10 – Coffee/comfort/screen break
14:15	Learning from the 'other side' (followed by small group inquiry and plenary reflections)	Hannah MacDonald Expert Representative for Lived Experience, Royal College of Nursing Simon Arday
15:15-15:25 – Coffee/comfort/screen break
15:30	Small groups drawing together key themes and proposing actions
16:00	Whole group compilation of themes and proposed actions
16:20	What is parity of esteem now?	Simon Arday
16:30	Close	